

From: Chris Ishonay [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, 18 April 2024 2:09 PM
To: QSAC Submissions
Subject: Review of sentencing for sexual assault and rape offences

You don't often get email from [REDACTED] Learn why this is important

Dear Sir/Madam

Thank you for allowing me this opportunity to submit several papers from my blog which I consider to be relevant to your review:

<https://www.fighting4fair.com/uncategorized/on-rape-culture/>
<https://www.fighting4fair.com/uncategorized/teaching-sexual-consent-responsible-men-and-vulnerable-women/>
<https://www.fighting4fair.com/uncategorized/on-the-issue-of-consent/>
<https://www.fighting4fair.com/uncategorized/pedophilia-and-underage-sex-not-just-male-deviant-behaviour/>
<https://www.fighting4fair.com/uncategorized/on-the-punishment-of-women-and-the-notion-of-a-pussy-pass/>

Should time permit, I would speak at length, but my main thrust today is simply to remind you that gender-equality means (or at least should mean) equal rights and equal responsibilities - regardless of real or assumed gender.

The justice system has however moved to a point where women are quite clearly treated differently to men - at every stage of the process. Please take whatever steps are deemed appropriate to address this serious and unfortunate shortcoming.

Regards
Chris Ishonay