

Queensland Sentencing Advisory Council

11/12/17

Dear Sir or Madam

My submission is simple

Anyone that admits to killing a child be given a life sentence without parole or early release.

Anyone found guilty to be given a life sentence with a minimum of 15years (only after extensive rehabilitation, educational programmes have been attended in full). No early release.

Anyone who has prior convictions for child murder or harm be given a life sentence without parole or early release.

We are supposed to be protectors of the weak the vulnerable and our children. Let us ensure that we, the voice of this minority, are heard.

Yours very truly
